Library Rules

I. Each person is entitled to one book at a time. Books will be given out twice a week. If book desired is already loaned, it may be reserved for prisoner of first grade. To get a book, fill out LIBRARY REQUEST SLIP and leave it in library box. Give two or more numbers in order in which books are wanted, if first book is out, second selection will be delivered. No books or magazines can be taken from the library except in accordance with these rules and upon presentation of request slip. If OLD MAGAZINES are wanted, write those words on a slip. New request slips will be given out by the librarian.

2. Exchnge of books or magazines between cells is forbidden.

3. A book may be kept two weeks, when it must be renewed, if it is desired for a longer time. To renew a book, hand in request slip as for new book and write the word RENEW opposite the number. Time is figured from date on DATE SLIP opposite book pocket on inside of cover of book.

4. Popular books marked SEVEN DAY BOOK must not be kept over that time, and cannot be renewed. These books are indicated by DATE SLIP noted above.

5. Current numbers of magazines must not be kept more than three days. New magazines are loaned to regular list of applicants, in order assigned by Warden. When all regular applicants have had current number, it may be borrowed by any prisoner. Back numbers of magazines may be kept two weeks and renewed like books.

6. Library privileges will be withdrawn for failure to observe rules, and for injury to books from careless handling or marking in them.

7. Text-books and books for courses of study may be renewed indefinitely, or borrowed for a period of one month, upon application to Warden.

8. Dictionaries, atlases and other reference books may be kept for one day only.

C. W. JAMES, Superintendent.
